

Video & TV workshops for ages 15-19

From television to YouTube, young people are increasingly interested in making programmes and films. These courses are designed to engage any young person with an interest in TV and filmmaking, are facilitated by professional filmmakers and television producers, and can be OCN accredited.

Video skills

- ✓ Learn to use video equipment
- ✓ Shooting and composition skills
- ✓ Roles in film and working as a group
- ✓ Edit video using industry software such as Adobe Premiere

TV skills

- ✓ Presenting techniques
- ✓ Scripting for television
- ✓ Using an auto cue
- ✓ Live vision mixing
- ✓ Developing a show reel
- ✓ Getting a job in the media.

Introduction to video production

Participants create short documentaries about local/national issues that can be embedded into websites and presented as a live news programme in a television studio.

Advanced video production

For groups who have some experience of basic production techniques, this course pushes participants to develop key skills in presentation – mimicking the techniques of current TV programmes whilst learning from professionals and industry insiders.
